

All workshops will cater for children across a range of ages and developmental stages

Mondays	Tuesdays	Wednesdays	Thursdays	Fridays
Digital Media outline of workshops 1.30pm – 3.00pm	Art Outline of workshops 1.30 – 3.00pm	English exploration Outline of workshops 1.30-2.30	Thinking Skills 1.30-3.00pm Outline of workshops	Food and Nutrition 1.30pm – 3.00pm Outline of workshops
Photography Framing Shots Looking at different types of shots such as: WS; MS; LS; CU; LA; HA and ECU. Student learn about framing and focusing and make a puzzle with their best image. Creating Photomontage Inspired by David Hockney students work on ECU shots of themselves creating a composite image from the parts. What makes a good image? Students explore sources for images and discuss what constitutes a good image. Students are given a brief. They select a suitable image to create a seasonal card. Improving images with photo editing software Introduction to using photo editing software and using filters. Students create a photo booth strip. Creating a poster Using photo editing software to create a composite image in the style of a given poster.	Portraiture Create portrait paintings, pastels and collage inspired by looking at images of portraits by artists Modigliani, Van Gogh, Paul Klee, Keith Haring and David Hockney . Use close observation drawings to create self portraits. Use pre cut stencil face shapes and mixed media materials. Explore water colours and layering tissue paper to create light and shade and movement. Celebrate our names Typography: experimenting with different lettering styles. Share our interests and hobbies. Experiment with bold colours, Re-visit colour mixing and colour contrasts, complementary. Modelling letters using salt dough Mixing, rolling, and cutting using modelling tools. The River Thames Look at the artist William Turner using paints and pastels explore blending colours to create light, shadows and movement in water and share memories of sunrise and sunset.	Oracy Phil leading fortnightly oracy workshops. 13/9, 27/9, 11/10, 8/11, 22/11, 6/12. We will prepare for each workshop the previous week with a sandwich workshop of word games, reading aloud and oracy activities. Story telling, Roald Dahl Talk for writing, Story Boxes Poetry performance, Memorising skills Presentation skills, Voice and body language Interviewing techniques, Young reporters Drama Christmas production	Think Fun Puzzles We will play games that will build our strategic and logic thinking. We will have to persist and persevere to solve the brainteasers. When working as a team, you will have to be able to explain your thinking and work with others towards an objective All games have been carefully designed and selected to stimulate logic thinking, visual/spatial, math, language and reasoning skills. And they are addictively fun games!	Food groups and healthy eating 1. Bread – Exploring different types of bread. How and where do we grow our grains? What makes our bread rise? 2. Tacos Investigate foods wrapped in a flour base and discuss why this is so common in all cultures. 1. Stir fry A way of cooking healthy food quickly with what you like to eat. 2. Smoothies How can you create a healthy and filling drink using no sugar? Which nutrition do fruit give us and where do they grow? 3. Rice and peas Where does rice grow, how many countries are dependent on rice as their main staple? Do you know other staples? 4. Pizza twirls Delicious healthy snacks - alternatives 5. Christmas biscuits Celebration-tradition