

Pupil Premium Report 2020/2021

Due to the mobile population of the school, most of our pupils are only present for short stays, but we do receive an allocation for some pupils who are eligible for free school meals. We adopt a flexible approach to ensure the Pupil Premium allocation is used to maximum effect to support our pupils whilst they are with the school.

Evelina Hospital School has adopted a tiered approach to Pupil Premium allocation, according to the guidelines from the EEF Guide to the Pupil Premium. This includes: continuing professional development (CPD); targeted academic support; and wider strategies (addressing barriers to learning). These are outlined below.

Intervention	Details	Impact / intended impact
Professional Development and CPD	Membership of professional bodies – The National College, The Key for Governors, Safeguarding, Leadership	Staff development enhanced whether onsite or working remotely; rolling programme of safeguarding training facilitated; research facilitated; resources for presenting in CPD
Targeted academic support for long term pupils	Purchase of Dynamo and Lexia Maths and English online assessment and support interventions	Ability to identify gaps in learning via assessment identified so these can then be addressed through the interventions. Promotion of independent learning and clearer idea for pupils as to what they have achieved
Targeted academic support for SEND pupils	Singing Hands (singing and signing) bought in for remote sessions on wards	Focus on overcoming barriers to communication and increasing pupil engagement
Targeted academic support that promotes inclusion	Coaching on approaches to diversity in curriculum delivery	Review of curriculum to better reflect our diverse world

Wider strategies –	Fast Tomato careers scheme Courses on RHSE	Add to cultural capital to locate learning in the world beyond the classroom
