Evelina Hospital School is a Southwark community special school meeting the educational needs of young people who are patients or siblings of patients in Evelina London Children's Hospital and the wider Guy's and St Thomas' Trust.

Evelina Hospital School is committed to providing personalised education where every child feels valued, nurtured and respected within our hospital school. We teach children with medical needs from 2-19 with the full spectrum of abilities including special educational needs. We are looking for an excellent Higher Level Teaching Assistant to join our team.

The successful applicant will be required to work across the school and subjects, but we are specifically looking for a candidate who can bring additional skills to complement our team, e.g. specialist experience in ICT/Computing.

The successful applicant will:

- Be a team worker, who is able to work effectively with people across a wide range of levels and responsibilities.
- Be a good communicator with the ability to maintain confidentiality.
- Have experience of working with children of mixed age and abilities and be committed to pupil improvement.
- Have good literacy, numeracy and ICT skills.

How to apply:

Please download the application pack from the school website and complete the application form. Please ensure that your answers relate directly to the skills listed in person specification and please give examples. Bullet points and headings are helpful to ensure your application is of suitable length - please do not exceed the length mentioned on the form in your personal statement. All applications must be submitted on the Southwark application form by the closing date and the school is not able to accept CVs for this job. We do not accept applications from agencies.

Completed application forms should be sent by email to hwalton@evelina.southwark.sch.uk

The Evelina Hospital School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

We welcome applications from underrepresented groups including ethnicity, gender, transgender, age, disability, disability, sexual orientation or religion.

Please refer to our website, Twitter and Instagram feeds if you wish to view the school setting in advance of any interview.

The successful applicant will be required to undertake an enhanced DBS check, pass a health check, proof to the right to work in the UK and have at least two supportive references, including one from the most recent employer.

We are only able to respond to successful candidates. If you do not hear from us within two weeks after the closing date, please assume your application to be unsuccessful.
